

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 19, 1996

SUBJECT: SB 3200 - HB 3204

This bill, if enacted, will require the Court of Criminal appeals when issuing an opinion regarding a homicide or sex offense, to furnish the opinion to the district attorney general before it is publicly released. The district attorney general or victim-witness coordinator must make a reasonable effort to notify the victim(s) of the opinion.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures. The amount of such increase cannot be determined but is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
